Interested quarters point out that hitherto, Japan's actions have spoken louder than her words and it remains to be seen whether Admi. Nomura's words will likely be followed by supporting actions. This appears to be the view of the Administration as Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of -State, was very non-committal on Adml. Nomura's sentiments when -questioned today.

There is no indication in the reports reaching here that Germany is likely to be successful.

Italian Fleet Again Avoid

A statement issued by the Admiralty in London yesterday says that the Italian Fleet again avoided action on sighting the British Fieet in the Mediterranean.

The Italian force was reported to consist of two battleships, accompanied by a large number of cruisers and destroyers.

They altered their course and made off at high speed towards their base on sighting the British naval forces.

The British pursued and engaged the enemy and further details will be announced later, says a London message.

SUBMARINES IN REFUGE

Mr. Butler, Foreign Under-Secretary, announced in the House of Commons that the British Government has taken action against the Italian submarines, which had taken refuge in Tangier, in accordance with International Law.

FACTORIES IN KWANGTUNG

Under to Reconstruction Department of the Kwangtung Provincial Covernment, a number of factories have been established in those parts of the province yet free from invasion,

Largest of them is one for the Manufacture and repair of machines, which was established more than a year ago with a capital of $1.0,000. Aside from making machines for other factories in Kwangtung, it has produced 3,000 wheel-harrows for the newly established I Chan Transportation Administration and the same number of oil lamps.

The factory is operating in full force now as a large stock of iron stored at the workshop of the Ningyeung Railway has been turned over to it recently.

Another is the factory for making dry batteries, capitalised at $33,000. In view of the difficulty in obtaining raw material supplies, i is making only dry batteries for flashlights at present. However, 'it is expected that it will soon be able to turn out batteries for telephones and radio broadcasting

VALUABLE PUBLIC WORK OF SPORE ROTARY CLUB

The valuable public work being done by the Singapore Rotary Club is stressed in its annual report and roster for 1939-40, which has just been issued.

It records that the committee accepted the principle that as a club they should seek to come into direct contact with the various organisations to which donations were made. First. hand reports were received from Rotarians who undertook this valuable duty
